

Celebration of Women's Day

Seminar on 'Women with Disabilities: Issues & Challenges'

A seminar was organized on 9th March, 2017 by Department of Socio Economic Rehabilitation, NILD in association with Dept. of Sociology & Dept. of Human Rights & Human Development, Rabindra Bharati University to celebrate International Women's Day.

The topic of the seminar was 'Women with Disabilities: Issues & Challenges'. Smt. Nupur Banerjee, Chief Government Architect & Ex. Officio Chief Engineer, PwD, Govt. of West Bengal inaugurated the program. Among the other dignitaries, Dr. Kanchan Gaba, Secretary, Turnstone global, Smt. Uma Sen, OSD, Office of State Commissioner of Disability, Govt. of West Bengal were also present.

The seminar was chaired by Dr. Sujata Sen, former Professor of Sociology. Speakers from National Institute for Locomotor Disabilities (Divyangjan), Kolkata & Rabindra Bharati University in their deliberations mentioned the issues of technological requirement for independent living, employment opportunities, violence, abuse, barriers & challenges faced by the women with disabilities in the present social scenario. Dr. Sampa Sen, Associate Professor spoke about the acid victims. Faculties, students and researchers attended the seminar.

Welcome of Chief Guest by Director,NILD

Inauguration of the program by lighting of lamp by Chief Guest , other dignitaries & officers of NILD

Welcome address

Address by dignitaries and officers of NILD

Distigued speakers in the seminar

Dance drama Chitrangada presented by students of RabindraBharati University